BEACON 1987

TO YOU — AND THE CLASS OF 1987:

*Y*our class has distinguished itself by its aggressive and purposeful search for its future; and, indeed, the future will be placed in your hands. With this gift, you may participate in the joys of leadership and responsibility, not only for yourself, but for others. You will influence local events and national policy. You will influence the development of close family members and associates in your community. Your behavior, actions, and example will affect the lives and destinies of thousands of persons, many unknown to you, during the course of your life.

Fisher Junior College has sought to influence you by providing knowledge, skills, and understanding during the time we were together. It is the sincere wish of your faculty and administration that you go forth from graduation enriched by our association, that you acquired positive influences from us to help you in achieving a most productive, useful, and pleasant life in the years to come.

*Dr. Scott A. Fisher
Chancellor*

Time to scratch the bed bugs.

Would we skip?

Shovel it in, Jacqui.

Meet the new security guards.

Double trouble.

Check out those Fisher Foxes.

Give us a break. We're trying to study.

Toni and Maria take a break between classes.

Who us?

We just love breakfast.

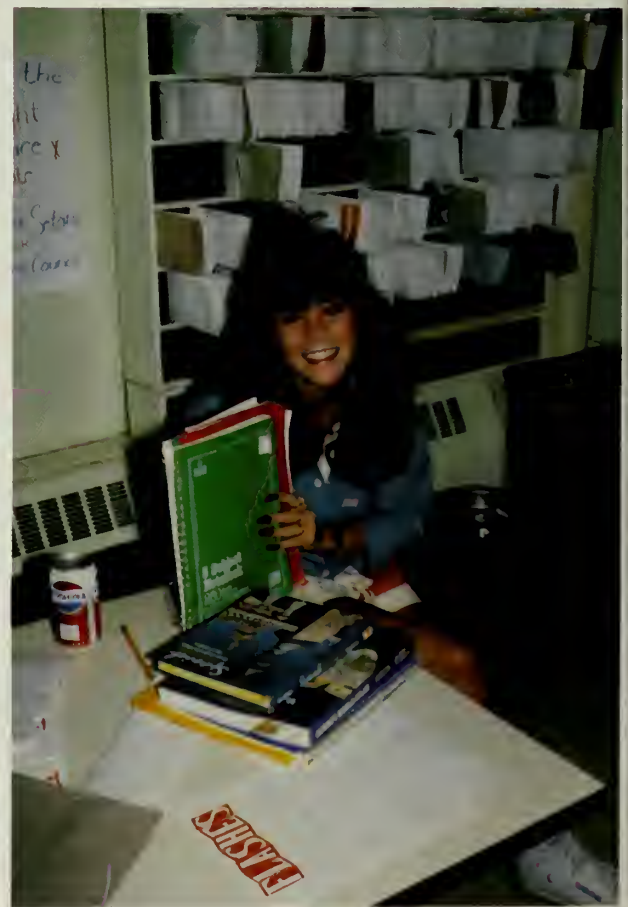

Buying another lunch at the truck.

Did you want to take a book out?

It's girls' night out.

This is my new notebook.

Gee, I hope I didn't flunk that test.

Hanging out at Houlihan's.

Time to get up!

Hey, don't give me any trouble.

Having a snack attack, Erin?

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

I am pleased that the yearbook gives me the chance to leave a few words for my friends, the class of 1987. My hope for all is to be successful. We must put faith in ourselves as individuals before all else. If we are to be remembered both as individuals and as a class, if we are to achieve ultimate success, it will be because we have shown love in all our works. We do not enter this great world to conquer it, but to heal it—not to overcome, but to help.

Although I am unable to see into the future, I am fully confident that a class with as much enthusiasm, innovation, and sheer greatness as ours will never be forgotten at Fisher Junior College. I commend each of you for contributing to that. All this and more we have represented as the Fisher Junior College Class of 1987. Now it is our time to go on, to be successful. For the world we live in is incomplete and always changing. As we have changed our community and as we have changed ourselves, so can we change the world.

Best of luck to each of you.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

As president of the Freshman Class, I would like to extend my deepest thanks to the administration, faculty, staff, and my peers here at Fisher for helping to make my role as president a success. Also, speaking on behalf of the Freshman Class of 1988, I would like to wish the seniors of the class of 1987 continued success in all their future endeavors. Thank you for your support.

Sincerely yours,

Allison Grassetti

DEDICATION

Krista I. McLeod, Assistant Librarian

We dedicate the 1987 Beacon to Krista McLeod. With the college years filled with term papers and research assignments, Krista's assistance has been immeasurable. She is always lending a helping hand and does her best to provide support. As Assistant Librarian, Krista not only helps the students, but the entire "Fisher family."

Oliver Wendell Holmes once said that "Every library should be complete on something, if it were only the history of pinheads." Our library is complete with the intelligence, patience, and guidance of Krista McLeod. Thank you, Krista. The knowledge you have helped us acquire will last forever.

THANK YOU

We, the editors, are extremely grateful to everyone who helped produce the 1987 Beacon. Although much assistance has been received from numerous people, special thanks go to some particular supporters.

Thanks to: the bookstore staff for making their facilities, especially the copier, available to us; the Fisher library staff for their research assistance; Jack Bresciani, Roberta Cantor, and Michele Mellace for their helpfulness in providing pictures; Irene Checkovich and Kelly Wemmers for all student information needed; Cynthia Collins and Susan Petrilli for their non-stop support; Ms. Edinger, Dr. Harmer, Mrs. Shore, Ms. Tirrell, and Mrs. Varisco for letting the yearbook staff invade their office space on many occasions, additionally Mr. Brettschneider who also let us invade his supply of junkfood; and Mrs. Pithis for patiently waiting to commute home when we worked "overtime."

Our highest thanks go to those who worked most closely with the yearbook. They include John Carrier and Cathy Badour from Herff Jones Yearbook, and the entire yearbook staff, with extra appreciation to Nancy Wathen who managed to attend every yearbook meeting.

We express our most sincere thanks to Dr. Walton. As the yearbook advisor, he gave us his time, patience, cooperation, commitment, and friendship. This book would not have been completed, or even started, without Dr. Walton's enthusiasm and intelligence. He told us great jokes as well as proper grammar rules! He provided us with fresh insights and gave us the confidence to make our ideas work. We truly appreciate everything he has done for us.

We hope that the combined works of all the yearbook "helpers" has created a book you will cherish and enjoy for many years. We tried our best to include every senior's picture within these pages, and wish that you are pleased with this collection of memories.

With Love and Appreciation,

*Cheryl Monaco,
Jacqui Urrasio, and Brenda Callahan*

"To be fond of learning is to be near to knowledge."

— Tze-Sze

"Study as if you were to live forever. Live as if you were to die tomorrow."

— Isidore of Seville

"Woman was created from the rib of man,
not from his head to be above him
not his feet to be walked upon,
but from his side to be equal,
near his arm to be protected
and close to his heart to be loved."

— Dale S. Hadley

"Colleges are places where pebbles are polished and diamonds are dimmed."

— Robert G. Ingersoll

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

— Henry Brooks Adams

"If you educate a man, you educate an individual; if you educate a woman, you educate a family."

— Dr. Charles D. McIver

"What a woman thinks of women is the test of her nature."

— George Meredith

"Learning is acquired by reading books; but the much more necessary learning, the knowledge of the world, is only to be acquired by reading men, and studying all the various editions of them."

— Lord Chesterfield

"It is only when we forget all our learning that we begin to know."

— Henry David Thoreau

"Wear your learning, like your watch, in a private pocket; and do not pull it out and strike it, merely to show that you have one. If you are asked what o'clock it is, tell it; but do not proclaim it hourly and unasked, like the watchman."

— Lord Chesterfield
